What has been worked on in the past month?	The last month I have been working on my partnership with Choose A Challenge, planning social events and fundraising events up until December. I took part in the societies fair and have been engaging on social media actively trying to gain more members. I have also announced the charities we are fundraising for
Successes from the past month and any Reps Wins	We are holding our first taster event this month Our partnership with choose a challenge was approved
Plans for next month	Starting fundraising plans More awareness about the drop in sessions Engagement with societies and sports offering them a document about what resources and help I can offer to ensure their fundraising initiatives are maximised to their potential Pass the 15 member threshold
