Report Summary	Over the last month I have worked on creating content for the accreditation scheme and supporting their wellbeing network in their campaigns and the cook along's. I have also presented to our Board of trustees and taken part in an Accountability and insight subcommittee and Education and students life committee. I have continued to call isolating students and finally, I have delivered Candy canes to 12 accommodations in order to spread the festive cheer from the SU!
KPIs	Updates
70% of students feel that they have access to mental health support and would feel comfortable using it	Progress this month:	Over this month I have continued to work with the advice centre to ensure students are aware of the support they can receive, the wellbeing champions have been fantastic at signposting students to services. I have continued to work with the SU staff to come up with an alternative, COVID save solution to provide peer to peer support for students and we are currently looking into what we can do to support people who are looking for housemates.
	Plans for next month:	In the new year I plan to continue to work on creating an alternative solution of peer to peer support for students, such as a befriending service- which I have seen students talking about on social media.
Implement a Students Union housing accreditation scheme and letting agency	Progress this month:	Over December I have continued to work in collaboration with the ICT department to finish a WIFI guide for students in HMOs which will be made available to students in the New Year. W2e have also begun to look into how we can support students who are looking for housemates.
	Plans for next month:	In the new year I plan to continue to get feedback from students on housing to ensure the scheme is reflective of what students need and create guidance for students around any areas of housing that we may have previously missed.          The WIFI guide will also be published for students.

75% of students are aware of how to access sexual health provisions and education.	Progress this month:	Over this month I have continued to work to promote the GP surgery and LISH Wednesdays to ensure students are aware of appointments. I have also continued to support the Lead sexual health wellbeing champion in her work. I have had meetings with students to discuss and get feedback on sexual misconduct and student support. Finally, I have arranged a meeting with the PCC to discuss the safety of students in Lincoln, which will take place in the new year.
	Plans for next month:	in the new year I plan to work on the safety of students in the city, organise meetings with LISH and Passante in order to continue to the work we started on SHAG packs prior to the lockdown.
Successfully launch the community map by November 2020	Progress this month:	The map has been finished and is ready to be made live on the website in the new year. We have also made sunflower lanyards available at both The SU advice centre and The student wellbeing centre.
	Plans for next month:	Over the next month I plan to continue to ensure the map is live on the website and provide the Colleges with a QR code that can be distributed to students and potential applicants. I will also continue to update the map as new locations are brought to my attention by students, finally I will continue to work with the local community to provide volunteering opportunities for students.
80% of Students feel that the Students Union supports their health and wellbeing	Progress this month:	This month has also seen limited progress on this project due to other projects and the pandemic taking priority. However, I have continued to plan the content for this.
	Plans for next month:	In the new year I hope we will be able to launch this update as we will have a HTML script writer for this.
70% of students are aware of the Wellbeing network	Progress this month:	Through December the wellbeing champions have continued to thrive! We now have 37 mental health wellbeing champions, 4 sexual health and 2 physical health. The wellbeing

		network advent calendar has been launched and has been very successful and the leads have continued to work hard to produce informative social media content within their areas. The cook alongs have been a success and have become a regular thing, occurring every other week and are both enjoyable to take part in and to watch. Megan's nomad trust collection was also very successful and a large box of toiletries was donated by students.
	Plans for next month:	In the new year I plan to work more closely with all the wellbeing champions, not just the leads to create campaigns based on student feedback. I also plan to support the leads with their social medias to continue to increase recognition of the network. Finally, I plan to continue to support the cook along's due to their success.

Student Interaction update:	I have been interacting with students through phone calls to isolating students, Facebook lives, wellbeing network meetings and catch ups, The engine shed giveaway with Abi and the wellbeing network cook along's.
Committee and University Staff updates:	Over the last month I have had meetings with student support, the university ICT department, Jaqueline Mayor and a mentor meeting with Julian Free. I have also sat on attendance panels and an Education and Students life committee.
Any Other Business:	I have also attended a Sincil Bank community forum and my first Accountability and insight subcommittee in which I presented my progress to date. I presented to our Board of Trustees on our approach to student wellbeing. Finally, I delivered candy canes to student accommodations to bring festive cheer from the SU.
