

Volunteer Officer Report February 2020

Sam Brinded – College of Arts Officer

What has been worked on in the past month?

Plans for the Lincoln Festival of Creativity are well under way, with different schools coming up with ways to best display their work.

Successes from the past month and any Reps Wins

A couple of matters that students have come to me with have been successfully addressed. I have also managed to have meetings with a few school reps, which is always a win.

Plans for next month

Continue with plans for the Festival of Creativity, supporting School reps and encouraging 'One Community'.
