Hi!

It's Students' Union Election time again, and it's going to be a great time for everyone involved. The Elections are your opportunity to stand up and be counted, to say 'I want to make a difference', to

COME ON BOARD

The elections process is a hugely rewarding one. As your Students' Union we're proud to offer students from all backgrounds and all areas of the University an opportunity to be elected for Student Leader and Volunteer Officer positions.

You'll have heard a lot about employability and how university experiences shape your future; well, this is one of those moments and you should grab it with both hands, because working with students on a daily basis is one of the most exciting parts of all of the roles.

If you want to make a difference in your student community and to the student experience, running in the Elections is definitely right for you. It's your time to

BE A LEADER

Enjoy every second.
Happy campaigning!

Love,

Hayley Jayne Wilkinson
Students' Union President
2015 - 2016

Elections: What they mean for you, and why they're so important to your Students' Union

WHY DO WE ELECT?

Democracy is a fundamental aspect of how we function; it ensures that all students' voices are heard. The election of Officers as representatives is enshrined by law in the 1994 Education Act because it is so important. Running elections means fair representation of all voices at the university and a leadership of the Union which is endorsed as thoroughly as possible by the student body.

HOW IS THE STUDENTS' UNION RUN?

As a registered charity, the work of the SU is overseen by a Board of Trustees, made up of a majority of student representatives; these are joined by five external trustees, selected on the basis of specific, required expertise and skills. The Board of Trustees ensures the Students' Union operates within the law, its financial means and towards its strategy.

WHAT WILL MY ROLE BE WITHIN THE UNION?

Your primary role as an elected Officer will be to represent students' views and needs. As a Student Leader you will be a member of the Students' Union Executive Committee; as a Volunteer Officer you will be a member of Student Council, which meets once a month and to which all students are invited.

The Executive Committee make the day-to-day decisions that direct what the SU does. Student Council provides an opportunity for all students to hold Student Leaders and Volunteer Officers to account and to see what developments, decisions or changes have been made since the previous meeting. It is important that any decisions you make are based on evidence, and you will have to be comfortable communicating these decisions to students, the University and the local community.

WHAT OPPORTUNITIES DO I GET AS A STUDENT LEADER OR VOLUNTEER OFFICER?

As an elected Officer you will:

- Be a big part of the team that was crowned NUS Students' Union of the Year 2014
 - Influence big decisions that the University and the Union make to better the lives of students in Lincoln for years to come
 - Implement the Students' Union Strategic Plan, ensuring it is working towards the goals students have set out for us
 - Organise events and activities, involve students on important issues, and be part of the Students' Union team that continuously improves students' lives in Lincoln
 - Be part of the democratic processes of the Students' Union, improving skills which make you an effective representative and which can be carried into employment
- Attend training sessions to further develop your skills in public speaking, leadership, management, equality and diversity, and much more
 - Organise events and activities, involve students on important issues and be part of the SU team that continuously improves students' lives in Lincoln
 - Be part of the democratic processes of the Students' Union, improving skills which make you an effective representative and can be carried into employment
 - Attend training sessions to further develop your skills in public speaking, leadership, management, equality and diversity, and much more

Last year, 89% of candidates felt they had developed skills which would help them after university as a result of running in the elections.

IT'S TIME TO
*Journey
Higher*

WHO CAN NOMINATE THEMSELVES FOR ELECTION?

All students are eligible to stand for election if they are members of the SU and are in good standing with the University. Student Leader roles are full-time, paid positions lasting for one year; if you're not in your final year, you would need to take a break from your studies. Volunteer Officer positions allow you to continue your studies alongside the role. You will log your volunteering hours via our website and can achieve a Students' Union Volunteering Award for doing so; this can also contribute to the Lincoln Award.

WHEN SHOULD I START?

Newly elected Volunteer Officers and Student Leaders will start work on 13th June 2016, and will begin their roles on 20th June 2016. If you are successful in running to be a Student Leader, you must be available throughout these two weeks. All Volunteer Officers will need to be available for a two day training and induction (and fun!) session in the first week of September. Student Leaders will also be required to attend.

WHY SHOULD I RUN FOR ELECTION?

Being part of the elections process is one of the most rewarding experiences you can have while at University. You will develop new skills and gain a lot of experience in public speaking, planning, expressing ideas, running a campaign and more. It is an incredible opportunity to lead students, develop yourself personally and professionally, and create positive change for all students.

WHAT DO I DO IF I WANT TO RUN FOR ELECTION?

First, decide which role you feel you would be most suited to; we'd recommend speaking to the current Officer about what their role entails. Along with information about the nomination process, detailed role descriptions are included in this pack on page 14 and are available at lincolnsu.com/elections

HOW CAN THE SU HELP ME?

If you're thinking of running, we can help you every step of the way. If you have general queries about running or the process of elections, you can email elections@lincolnsu.com

We're also running workshops to help clear up frequently asked questions and give you an opportunity to develop skills in campaigning, delivering speeches, and more.

Our workshops are designed to help you see the huge potential you have as a Student Leader or Volunteer Officer and highlight how effective you'd be in your chosen role. A common barrier that concerns people is that they have never been part of a campaign up to this point, but don't worry – since you've been at University you've developed skills which are vital to campaigning, whether you realise it or not. What's more, we'll offer support, information and advice when you need it and our workshops will be really beneficial.

Find the dates of all our workshops on page 8 and on the Elections website.

NOMINATING YOURSELF

You will need to complete a nomination form, including:

- A good quality photo of yourself, preferably a head-and-shoulders shot
- Your publicity designs, which will be approved to ensure they are appropriate
- A short Candidate Statement, to go with your photo on the elections voting page (100 characters)
- Your candidate manifesto (500 words)

All this is done via the Elections website lincolnsu.com/elections – Just have your photo and designs ready to go with your reasons for standing.

Candidate Manifesto

Your manifesto should be a maximum of 500 words, explaining why you are running, what makes you a good candidate, and what you plan to do if you are elected. Your plans should be realistic, evidence-led, and student-focused.

Please be positive about other candidates or current officers if you have to name them in your manifesto.

Candidate Statement

Your candidate statement should be 100 characters. It will appear with your photo on the website when people log in to vote at lincolnsu.com/vote

We may also Tweet it out to promote the elections candidates.

Artwork

You must electronically submit your artwork for your poster, flyer and anything else, with your nomination form, by the close of nominations on the 12th February 2015 at 12pm. Nominations received after this will not be accepted.

Once you have submitted

Once you've submitted your nomination, it will be checked to make sure nothing within it is offensive, and the University will check that you do not have any fee payments outstanding that would prevent you running (this does not refer to your Student Loan).

After your submissions have been checked, you will receive an email to confirm that your nomination has been accepted. This email will tell you about the next steps, upcoming events, and how we can further help you.

PUBLICITY MATERIALS

Each candidate is allocated the printing resources noted below, for free, from the Students' Union. You will receive them at Candidate Briefing as part of your candidate pack, which will give you materials that can help you during elections.

STUDENT LEADER CANDIDATES

50 x A3 Colour Posters
25 x A4 Colour Posters
500 x A5 Colour Flyers
(Double-sided)

VOLUNTEER OFFICER CANDIDATES

50 x A4 Colour Posters
250 x A5 Colour Flyers
(Double-sided)

All printing will be on white paper and no other posters or flyers will be supplied by the SU. Additional printing will have to be taken from your elections spending, but we advise you to consider whether this is the best use of money.

In addition to the SU paying for the above print resources, candidates may spend their own money on the campaign: up to £100 for Student Leader candidates and £50 for Volunteer Officer candidates. This expenditure will not be reimbursed by the Students' Union.

Receipts and records of spending must be kept as they are required by the Returning Officer. These Declaration of Spend forms must be submitted by 12pm on 25th February; late submissions of spending will incur penalties.

Candidate Briefing

All candidates running in the election are required to attend the compulsory Candidate Briefing session. This is when we will go through the rules and regulations of the election in more detail, answer any questions you have and give you even more top tips on how to make the most of running in the elections.

This will take place at 5pm on Thursday 18th February 2015.

If you are unable to attend you must tell us as soon as possible so that we can rearrange a session for you to attend. You will not be allowed to begin campaigning until you have received a candidate briefing.

CAMPAIGNING

one small step

START OF CAMPAIGNING

The Returning Officer will announce the start of campaigning at the Candidate Briefing on Thursday 18th February.

You will not be allowed to start campaigning until you have attended a Candidate Briefing.

Your artwork and manifesto will be printed by the Students' Union and will be given to you in the briefing. This will also be a great opportunity to have any final questions answered and get helpful hints and tips.

HELP DURING CAMPAIGNING

The Students' Union is here to give you support and encouragement while you're campaigning. We'll be hosting a Candidate Breakfast session in The Hub, 9-9.30am starting on Tuesday 23rd February, until Friday 26th February. Here you can ask for help or advice, discuss any concerns you may have and get an update on the daily voting figures, which will help you target your campaigning each day.

STUDENT LEADER CANDIDATE QUESTION TIME

Candidate Question Time is compulsory for candidates running for Student Leader positions. If you don't attend you will be disqualified from the elections. You will be expected to deliver a two minute speech and respond to questions from the floor. Anyone can attend, but only questions from Students' Union members will be permitted. This will take place on Friday 19th February, 7pm in Tower Bar.

LOOKING AFTER YOURSELF

The elections process requires a lot of energy! Make sure you're eating and drinking enough and take regular breaks, even if they're only short. We'll be running free candidate breakfasts (Tuesday to Friday) and evening meals (Monday to Thursday) during voting week; please do come along. While you will obviously want to campaign hard and make the most of the week, you also need to make sure you're taking care of yourself. We will also be providing a late lunch on Friday 26th February in Tower Bar, after voting closes.

THE RULES

Elections are a fun business... but also a serious one. Be clear on the rules

Remember, you are responsible for the actions of everyone campaigning on your behalf. You must make sure your campaign team is aware of the rules.

THE RETURNING OFFICER

The Trustee Board and the University's Board of Governors jointly approve the Returning Officer every three years from candidate(s) proposed by the SU's Chief Executive. The Returning Officer is solely responsible for the interpretation of the election regulations.

Responsibilities of Returning Officer include:

- Enforcement of the election regulations and ultimate responsibility for the free and fair running of the elections
- To submit a report on the conduct of the elections to the Trustees and the University's Board of Governors, within one month following each election, stating whether the election was conducted freely and fairly in line with the Election Regulations and what steps could be taken to improve future elections. The report will be published on our website

- To co-opt up to four Assistant Returning Officers, one of whom may be nominated as a Deputy Returning Officer. The appointment of Assistant Returning Officers must be confirmed by the Elections Committee. The Assistant Returning Officers and Deputy Returning Officer may exercise the powers and duties of the Returning Officer under our Bye-Laws to the extent so permitted by the Returning Officer and references in Bye-Law 7

Powers of the Returning Officer include:

- Issue an oral or written warning to candidates
- Restrict the amount of publicity available to a candidate
- Disqualify a candidate
- Require the candidate to publicly correct or withdraw any inaccurate or prohibited statement, or to remove any prohibited publicity material
- Take any other appropriate action in relation to candidates
- To refer any incidents to appropriate University, Union or external authorities if the behaviour of a candidate or their campaigners/supporters break university regulations, Students' Union policies or the rules of other bodies
- Confiscation of election materials
- Require a candidate to issue an apology
- Create a code of conduct for candidates

RULES TO BE FAMILIAR WITH

Take a quick look at the Election Rules (Bye Law 7), which contain all regulations and procedures for the elections process. These will be explained further at Candidate Briefing on Thursday 18th February, 5pm. The rules can also be found on the website lincolnsu.com/byelaw7 – don't worry, you're not expected to know everything; we're here to help.

- There must be no open/public online activity before the official start of campaigning (which is at the end of the Candidate Briefing on 18th February).
- You may create and pre-prepare some activity/groups/pages on social media beforehand
- Any negative or derogatory online comments which you or your campaign team make may result in sanctions against you
- As with any rules, if you are deemed to have broken any, you may have sanctions raised against you
- Posters and publicity cannot go up prior to the start of campaigning on Thursday 18th February, at the end of the Candidate Briefing

- Remember more campaigning less complaining! The Returning Officer will make every effort to resolve complaints quickly. In the event of a breach of the rules, the candidates concerned will be sanctioned
- Campaign materials must be removed on the last day of voting. Any costs incurred for removal of materials, damage to property, or cleaning as a result of campaigning will be billed to the candidate
- Your Declaration of Spending form must be submitted to the Returning Officer by 12pm on 25th February. If it is not handed in with the receipts or photocopies, you will be disqualified from the elections

Remember, the spending limit is £100 for Student Leader candidates and £50 for Volunteer Officer Candidates.

Please also remember the following when campaigning:

- No trespassing on private property
- All banners, posters etc. must be approved beforehand and are to be correctly, safely fastened
- Any damage caused to University property will be billed to candidates

WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF YOU BREAK THE RULES?

If a candidate or any member of their team is found to have broken the rules, the Returning Officer has the power to act in whatever way they see fit to preserve the fairness of the election. As a rough guide, considerations will be in two parts, as outlined below:

- Has the candidate deliberately broken the rules? If yes, then they may be disqualified
- Has the candidate unwittingly broken the rules? If yes, then the Returning Officer will decide on whether their actions have affected the election and will take steps to correct it.

The Returning Officer is likely to take one of the following decisions:

- Allow the election to continue with no action
- Disqualify the candidate
- Halt the election for that candidate
- Halt the entire election

Should you wish to make a complaint about another candidate, ensure that the complaint is made in a timely manner to the Returning Officer, via elections@lincolnsu.com – delays in submitting complaints are detrimental to the election and against the spirit of the event.

RIGHT TO APPEAL

Candidates who disagree with the decision of the Returning Officer have the right to appeal. Appeals against such decisions will be heard after the Election.

WHO CAN VOTE?

Only members of the Students' Union will be eligible to vote. If you are currently enrolled at the University of Lincoln and have opted out of the Students' Union, you need to go to the Student Support Centre to be opted back in. You must do this before 5pm on Thursday 25th February 2015 at the latest, otherwise you will miss your chance to vote.

WHAT VOTING SYSTEM IS USED?

The Single Transferable Vote (STV) system is the method used within all University of Lincoln Students' Union Elections. This method means you assign preference to each candidate ('1' being your top choice, '2' your second, and so on).

WHEN AND WHERE DOES VOTING HAPPEN?

Voting for elections is run online at lincolnsu.com/vote

The voting opens on Monday 22nd February at 9am, and closes at 2pm on Friday 26th February 2015.

HOW DO I VOTE?

1. Go to lincolnsu.com/vote and enter your normal University username and password
2. You will then see a list of currently active elections. There will be a link for each of the roles you can vote for
3. Click on the role you would like to vote for, and rank each candidate in order of your personal preference. You don't have to rank all candidates, but your additional choices may be used to help determine the winner

So if your preferred candidate is M Nobody, you might put:

J Bloggs = 3

A N Other = 2

M Nobody = 1

RON = 4

As a candidate, it is important for you to campaign for first preference and encourage students who will not give you first preference to give you second.

WHAT IS THE SPOILT BOX FOR?

If students wish to spoil their ballot paper, they tick the 'Spoil' box. This will override any preferences they may have already placed on the ballot.

HOW ARE VOTES COUNTED?

When voting has closed, votes for each position will be calculated. Any spoiled or invalid ballots will be eliminated at this stage.

In order to win on the first round, a candidate must receive an amount of votes which equals or exceeds the quota.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF RESULTS

Results will be announced at Tower Bar on Friday 26th February, 7pm.

Everyone is invited!
