

Volunteer Officer Report November 2019

Bart Hill – School of Geography Rep

What has been worked on in the past month?

- A Christmas meal has been organised for the 3rd year cohort as well as the lecturers.
- Another Subject Committee meeting was held which raised key points about getting students involved.
- Discussions around the effectiveness of seminars was spoken about.

Successes from the past month and any Reps Wins

- Organisation of other Christmas meals and getting the reps to be more interactive.
- Successful use of the Course Related travel grant to help pay for 3rd year fieldtrip.
- Advisory Board and Subject Committee's allowed for student voice to be heard.
- Successful push for using the JBL facilities that shall continue into following years.

Plans for next month

- Support students through essays and exams period.
- Host and complete the first Christmas Meal.
- Continue to represent the views of the student body.