Manifesto Point	Updates
To support the CEO to write and have in place by June 2020 the new University Of Lincoln Student Union Strategy 2020-2024	Progress this month: Plans for next month:	The Progress done this month includes setting a clear structure on how student feedback will be included within the Strategy with meetings already taken place in regard to the sports side of the Strategy. I also attended a 'WONKHE/NOUS' workshop named 'Project 2040'; looking at what universities/SU's could look like in 2040 and what our main aims should be. Plans for next month consist of holding an ASM to discuss the future of our SU and visiting external SU's to learn best practise which may inspire us for our Strategy.
To lead and support on 3 campus wide campaigns with 60% of students being aware of all 3 campaigns as measured in the new 'Member Insight Package'	Progress this month: Plans for next month:	Looking at the progress for this month in regard to the 3 campaigns, this month I have lead talks consisting of all our three campaigns, setting out dates and times for them in our SU calendar. I have lead talks on our first campaign on 'loneliness' which will be a yearlong campaign. This month I have lead on the 'GOATING' Loneliness day which will lead us for the rest of the year. Next month we will be presenting the start of the loneliness campaign but also starting talks on our next new campaign on 'Money matters' for students, working close with the university financial team to present this.
To continue to work and lead on facilitating student discussions regarding the disaffiliation of the SU from NUS, as agreed by the ULSU Board of Trustees	Progress this month: Plans for next month:	Progress for this manifesto point includes leading on creating and writing up a plan with my fellow officers a plan to determine how the executive will include student voice, being the overall decision maker of affiliating/disaffiliating with NUS. This proposal has now gone to board to be confirmed. Plans for next month consist of an ASM to discuss NUS but also planning hubs/working groups and other groups to get the wider student opinion on NUS. We want all students to be heard, not just the loudest.
To create a Sports Performance pathway in	Progress this month:	For the Sports performance pathway, the progress this month has carried on from last year with my work as VPA. This month money has been secured from the university to create

partnership with 'Sport Lincoln' stakeholders	Plans for next month:	the 'Sports Therapy' for students and now the Sports Therapy part of the performance pathway has started! Students can now pay £5 to have sports therapy. Massive win!
