Year of Study	2
What has been worked on in the past month?	Being new to this role, the last month involved establishing myself as the school of design rep and really engaging with other reps so they are aware that I'm a potential point of call for the school. Understanding the expectation of me as a school rep and the duties which come with this role is another thing I have spent the last month getting used to.
Successes from the past month and any Reps Wins	The last month hasn't involved much work on my side, with me being new to the role and getting into the swing of things. Although within the school of design, there has been a large number of students signing up to become course reps, especially a lot of interest from first years to engage with this rep roles.
Plans for next month	My plan for the next month is to get involved more in rep group chats so I can understand about what goes in behind the scenes and within the committees. Because I missed the last SRG due to work, I may have missed the opportunity to join groups which were being made. In order to understand more about the role I will organise a meeting with Georgia to discuss this further
