

Volunteer Officer Report February 2020

Princess Tamou – BAME Officer

What has been worked on in the past month?

In the past month the BAME campaign's group has helped the African Caribbean Society in their Valentine's event 'Take me out', which was a great success. Princess, the BAME lead also sat on a panel discussion for the opening of LGBT+ History month which was an amazing experience and also very successful.

Successes from the past month and any Reps Wins

The 'Take me out' event was a huge success in increasing intersectionality among students across campus as the event was open to non-members.

Plans for next month

Next month, Princess hopes to be attending and presenting a workshop at the Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Advance HE conference in Edinburgh!
