

Volunteer Officer Report January 2020

Lexy Marchant – Academic Societies Officer

What has been worked on in the past month?

In the last month I have worked on engagement with academic societies and encouraging them to shout about what they are doing

Successes from the past month and any Reps Wins

In the last month I have helped multiple academic societies with things from ordering hoodies to organising guest speakers

Plans for next month

Next month I aim to help members think about committee positions for next year and help them understand where they stand with things like money and events for next year
