Successes from the past month and any Reps Wins	<ul style="list-style-type: none">-We fed back any concerns students had to our engagement lead successfully-Myself and reps have been active in advising students and pointing them in the right direction during this time via year group chats-I would like to highlight the amazing work the School of Psychology have done to keep students informed and for being extremely efficient in delivering important information. With this support it has made mine and reps jobs of signposting students a whole lot easier
