Manifesto Point	Updates
International students are satisfied by the services provided by the SU	Progress this month:  Plans for next month:	Attended the inclusivity campaign which was perfectly put up by Emma and Abi. Had the All Student Members' Meeting to discuss the future of the students' union which included important decisions such as the future student leader roles and the affiliation/disaffiliation with NUS. The study group students have now got their elected student reps with who I had the rep training for and also a meeting with all reps and staff of the study group. The study group now also has buddy sign ups and we had the welcome event to pair the buddies up. I was also a part of the speak week getting feedback from students on how we can better help them with their course and other extracurricular activities as well. We also had the referendum for the affiliation with NUS. We have our money matters campaign and the housing fayre as well which is coming up later in this month.
To Spread cultural awareness through different cultural events and trips	Progress this month:  Plans for next month:	Diwali Celebrations was a successful event with over 150 people who attended the event, Diwali celebrations included both home and international students which really saw the integration with home and international students celebrating the festival together. The trip to Manchester was a huge success as well. I have been planning the trip to London which will be happening on the 28th of December, I am also planning for another event during the Christmas time for which the main aim would be to have plans for students who are still here during Christmas time.
500 Students are members of International students' Association	Progress this month:  Plans for next month:	The International Students' Association is a social group where all international students can interact with other international and home students. The automatic enrolment for all international students has been completed which has raised the number of ISA members to over 2000 members. The plan for the future is to get home students to interact with international students which would happen by them being members of the International Students' Association
Members of the ISA are Satisfied with the	Progress this month:	The ISA Drop in session happened between 12 pm – 5 pm, it was again great to see international students and home students come together and play board games in the drop in session and also

International Students' Association	Plans for next month:	the drop in session was essentially put out for ISA members if they had any questions for the Prague tour. The ISA committee is working hard to put out campaigns and events for international students in Lincoln. A Facebook group for all ISA members has been created for ISA members to be updated with all the international trips and cultural events that are taking place in the future.
Housing Options for February Students	Progress this month: Plans for next month:	I have been working closely with Emma (VP W&amp;C) in regard to finding the different accommodation options available for February students. We are currently in talks with the university accommodation department and certain accommodation issues with study group students and Post graduate students have also come up for which also me and Emma are working together to find out more options that are available for these groups of students.
