

Volunteer Officer Report December 2019

Jacob Diameh – Postgraduate Taught Students' Officer

What has been worked on in the past month?

Getting feedback from Postgraduate students on the introduction of the Postgraduate Personal Tutor role.

Meeting the PGT Lead for College of Arts and Media to discuss how to get them a Facebook page for advertising their events which will benefit all students on campus.

Successes from the past month and any Reps Wins

Feedback was generated from various course reps and PG focus groups.

Plans for next month

Meeting with the PG Dean in January 2020 to discuss how the reports of the PG Personal tutor from students will be used to shape students experience and life on campus.
