

Volunteer Officer Report December 2019

Princess Tamou – BAME Officer

What has been worked on in the past month?

In the past month, the BAME campaigns group have set in motion a really exciting new campaign, hopefully to be premiering in the New Year. We also had last campaigns network meeting of 2019!

Successes from the past month and any Reps Wins

Success from the past month include, collaboration with members from the African Caribbean society committee, in situations regarding BAME students life on campus. Further successes are exciting new plans for a brand-new campaign!

Plans for next month

The BAME campaign's Group are hoping to fully plan and market a new campaign for the New Year.
