Manifesto Point	Updates
International students are satisfied by the services provided by the SU	Progress this month: Plans for next month:	Helped with the Study Group cultural exchange quiz and explained about the various services that students could use provided by the Students' Union. We also had our Money matters campaign at the end of November to spread awareness about money management in which I specifically spoke to and focused on international students and how they can best manage their money. We also had the Christmas Decorate your Card event which was nicely received by students who wanted a personal touch in their wishes to their families. I am looking into the various ways to reduce the cultural and language barriers for international students and also how the February starters can be more involved with the services provided by the students' union.
To Spread cultural awareness through different cultural events and trips	Progress this month: Plans for next month:	The London trip took place over the Christmas break so that people who were staying in Lincoln over the Christmas break could visit the wonderful winter wonderland which is a great cultural experience for a lot of international students. The Christmas party was organised by the Residential wardens as well to provide students a nice time to spend together with their friends and find out who is staying back during the Christmas period as well. I have been planning an international quiz and an international party for all students to experience different cultures in.
500 Students are members of International students' Association	Progress this month: Plans for next month:	The International Students' Association is a social group where all international students can interact with other international and home students. The automatic enrolment for all international students has been completed which has raised the number of ISA members to over 2000 members. The plan for the future is to get home students to interact with international students which would happen by them being members of the International Students' Association
Members of the ISA are Satisfied with the	Progress this month: Plans for next month:	The ISA Committee held the ISA Buddy Welcome Social event where some of the buddies were paired and they were also asked on what sort of activities they would like to see the buddies doing

International Students' Association		together. We have also had the ISA committee meeting to discuss the future events that we will be having for the buddies and also everyone else to be a part of.
Housing Options for February Students	Progress this month: Plans for next month:	I have been working closely with Emma (VP W&C) in regard to finding the different accommodation options available for February students. We are currently in talks with the university accommodation department and certain accommodation issues with study group students and Post graduate students have also come up for which also me and Emma are working together to find out more options that are available for these groups of students. An action plan for this is created to be followed during the next month to carry out the further steps for this.
