

James Bayliss
College of Science Officer

What has been worked on in the past month? • Mercedes-Benz boat project is making lots of progress with their build and final testing.

- Computer science have done more good game jams which have had good turnout.
- 3 weekly meetings with VPAA have now been set up for after Easter.

Successes from the past month and any Reps Wins • Mercedes-Benz boat project is making lots of progress with their build and final testing.

- Computer science have done more good game jams which have had good turnout.
- 3 weekly meetings with VPAA have now been set up for after Easter.

Plans for next month The main priority for this month to get VPAA to have his first meeting with Libby (Head of College of Science). As well as Starting the media campaign for the Mercedes Benz boat project.