

University of Lincoln Students' Union Volunteer Officer Report

October 2018

RAG Officer – Emma Blackburn

What has been worked on in the past month:

This past month has been very focused on plans for RAG week, and most of my time has been spent either in meetings with various society committees, staff members and external providers, or writing event applications and risk assessments! I've worked with the marketing team to come up with concept designs for RAG Week branding and have begun to look at how we want to document and promote the events. We've had numerous RAG committee meetings and have also begun to meet with many volunteers, who are really looking forward to being involved in RAG week.

Successes from the past month:

We've had two fundraising events in the past month, Macmillan Coffee Morning which raised £153.92, and the Psychology Society Alzheimer's 80's Night which raised £122. Our Chosen Charities were selected, and they were LEAP (Lincolnshire Employment Accommodation Project), Lincolnshire Rape Crisis, Amnesty International UK, & Teenage Cancer Trust. 8 students have signed up for the Mind Machu Picchu Trip, with another information session on the 26.10.18, to try and promote the trip to more students. We've had 5 new committee members elected, with only the treasurer position still open for election.

Plans for next month:

Next month is RAG WEEK (12th Nov-16th Nov) and we can't wait! We've got loads going on, so keep your eyes peeled for more details. The majority of my work will be the final steps of organising and working with Committee and Volunteers on the day of each event to ensure they run as smoothly and as successfully as possible.
